Sudan: Security Situation

Country of Origin Information Report

October 20

The report provides an overview of the security situation in Sudan and is divided into two parts. The first one focuses on the general political and security situation of the country between March 2025 and August 2026 by the humanitarian situation at national level. The second part addresses the security situation state by state, focusing on the actors, conflict dynamics as well as security trends, events, and major impacts on the civilian population.
